Course Change Request Form

1. Date: March 29, 2013  Department: Business & Economics

2. Purpose and nature of change (include relevant assessment data to support this proposal):
Eliminate MGT 2230, Management Principles as a prerequisite for MGT 3360, International Management and add the prerequisite 40 earned credits.

The course is redesigned in such a way to provide students the basic background in the management principles covered in each topic of the course. By requiring 40 credit hours to be earned at the time of registration for the course, students will be upper division students who have demonstrated a track record of academic success and mature learning skills. Additionally, the course satisfies the global perspective, option 2 (Western and Non-Western Global Cultures). Removing MGT 2230 as a prerequisite will allow nonbusiness students to enroll in the course and satisfy the global perspective.

Attached is the course syllabus. Assessment includes tests, country and company case analysis, journal reviews, and experiential exercises.
