

Spa 2225
Areas of study for Exam 2

---

Verbs:

1. Have you been drilling your present tense and preterit tense verbs?
2. Does this include all of the stem-changing and irregular verbs?
3. How many semi-irregular and irregular forms of the preterit tense are there?
4. What are the semi-irregular preterit stems? (list)
5. Do you still recall how to form the present perfect and past perfect (or pluperfect) tenses?
6. How do you convert a present tense indicative verb into a present tense subjunctive verb?
7. How do you convert a preterit tense verb into a past subjunctive verb form?
8. Can you conjugate the present perfect or pluperfect tenses in the subjunctive?
9. What verb tense do you use when you subjectively perceive a past action that occurred in the preterit tense from the stand point of the present day (today)?
10. What verb tense do you use when you subjectively perceive a past action that occurred in the imperfect tense from the stand point of the present day (today)?
11. What verb tense do you use when you subjectively perceive a past action that occurred in the preterit or imperfect tense from the stand point of another day in the past?
12. When do you use the verb SER versus ESTAR?
13. How does SER or ESTAR change the meaning of adjectives like "verde"?
14. When do you use the verb HABER as "hay", "hubo", "habrá", or "había"?

The subjunctive:

1. What conditions in the independent clause will force the nominal clause to be conjugated in the subjunctive tense?
2. Which verbs will usually be found in the independent clause that precedes a nominal subjunctive clause?
3. What conditions in the independent clause will force the adjectival clause to be conjugated in the subjunctive tense?
4. Which words are important to identify in the independent clause that precedes an adjectival subjunctive clause?
5. How many subordinate conjunctions have we learned that create adverbial clauses?
6. Can you translate all of the adverbial conjunctions we have learned into English?
7. Under what conditions do you use the subjunctive in an adverbial clause?
8. Do any of the rules you learned regarding when to use the subjunctive differ in the past tense?
9. Is it possible to create a subjunctive expression using mixed periods of time?