

Spa 2201
Areas of study for Quiz 2

Double Object Pronouns:

1. Do you still recall how to distinguish between an indirect and a direct object pronoun?
2. What happens to the indirect object pronoun in a question?
3. In what order do the DOP and IOP appear in a double object pronoun sentence?
4. When can you hook the pronouns to the end of a verb?
5. When do you use “se” as opposed to “le” or “les”?

The Preterit Tense:

1. Can you conjugate regular AR, ER, and IR verbs?
2. What verbs require spelling changes (hint: buscar, leer, etc.)?
3. Which stem changing verbs in the present remain stem changing verbs in the preterit?
4. Which forms of the stem changing verbs in the preterit have the stem changes?
5. According to the professor’s system of conjugating (the zig-zag method), how many semi-irregular preterit verbs are there?
6. How many base-changing verbs should you know?
7. What are their base changes?
8. How do you conjugate irregular verbs like SER, IR, and DAR?
9. How does the meaning of verbs like “poder”, “saber”, “conocer”, and “tener” change when they are conjugated in the preterit tense?
10. Can you create a question/answer sequence in the preterit tense in which you also utilize the direct or indirect object pronouns?

The Imperfect Tense:

1. How do we conjugate verbs in the imperfect tense?
2. What three verbs are irregular in the imperfect tense?
3. Do you recall any other situation (aside from “description”, “habit”, “repetitive description”, and “ongoing but uncompleted action”) that requires the use of the imperfect form of the past tense?
4. Can you describe both in the present and past tense a few of your pastimes? What did you do/used to do? Where did you go/used to go?